INTRODUCTION.

This pamphlet has been compiled at the request of several whose names are herein contained.

The special object is to give the descendants of three daughters of Nathaniel⁵ Kingsbury of Keene, N. H.; though to make it of more interest, his line of descent from Joseph¹ Kingsbury, the original ancestor from England, with some other data, has been added.

Usually there has been a ready response to letters of inquiry. Special mention is here made of the valuable assistance rendered the compiler by Mrs. Minnie (White) Zuill, of Syracuse, N. Y., on the White Family; by the late Mrs. Mary (Hitchcock) Perkins, of Indianola, Ia., and Mrs. Helen L. (Clark) McClellan, of Trenton, Cal., on the Clark Family; and by Mrs. Mary A. (Tambling) Sumner, of Plymouth Union, Vt., on the Sumner Family. To these especially, and all others who have assisted, I return my hearty and sincere thanks.

That the present generation, and future posterity, may know their ancestors, these facts have been brought forward.

Extra copies of this pamphlet are in the hands of the compiler, for any who wish.

NATHANIEL KINGSBURY FAMILY.

NATHANIEL KINGSBURY FAMILY.

FIRST GENERATION.

JOSEPH¹ KINGSBURY, b. in England, 16—; m. Millicent Ames; came to America about 1628; settled in Dedham, Mass., where he died May 1676. He was admitted freeman June 2, 1641.

MILLICENT, “ye wife of Joseph¹ Kingsbury, who appeared to ye church a tender-hearted soule, full of fears and temptations, but truly breathing after Christ,” was received into the church in Dedham Apr. 24, 1639, and he united Apr. 9, 1641.

SECOND GENERATION.

NATHANIEL² KINGSBURY (Joseph¹ of England), b. in Dedham Mar. 26, 1650; died there Oct. 14, 1694; m., Oct. 14, 1673, Mary Bacon, dau. of John and Rebecca (Hall) Bacon, a sister of Thomas Bacon, the father of Rev. Jacob Bacon, the first minister of Upper Ashuelot (now Keene, N. H.) in 1738.

THIRD GENERATION.

DANIEL³ KINGSBURY (Nathaniel², Joseph¹), b. in Dedham Nov. 11, 1688; d. in Wrentham, Mass., April 27, 1754; chosen deacon, in 1739, of the first Congregational church in that part of Wrentham called “Western” or “Second Precinct,” and which was incorporated in 1778 as the town of Franklin.

His headstone, with that of his wife Elizabeth, and son Daniel⁴, were seen in 1899 by the compiler, in a cemetery near the present town line between Franklin and Norfolk.

He m., Dec. 29, 1713, Elizabeth Stevens (Stephens), b. 1691; d. July 12, 1764.

FOURTH GENERATION.

DANIEL⁴ KINGSBURY (Dea. Daniel³, Nathaniel², Joseph¹), b. in Wrentham, Mass., March 11, 1715; d. in Franklin, March 25, 1783. He resided in Franklin after its incorporation,—probably near Kingsbury pond. He was a private in the war of the Revolution, being a member of Capt. Samuel Fisher's company, Col. Benjamin Haw's regiment, and was sent on detached service at Rhode Island; discharged September 12, 1779; service, one month two days. Roll sworn to at Wrentham.

DANIEL⁴, m., Nov. 3, 1737, Beriah Mann, b. April 27, 1719; d. May 12, 1755; dau. of Dea. Theodore and Abigail (Hawes) Mann, (a relative of the Hon. Horace Mann of Mass.)

FIFTH GENERATION.

NATHANIEL⁵ KINGSBURY (Daniel⁴, Dea. Daniel³, Nathaniel², Joseph¹), b. in Wrentham Feb. 18, 1739; d. in Keene, N. H., Jan. 26, 1803; buried in North Cemetery, by the side of his second wife, Hannah, and third wife, Rebecca. He removed to Keene about 1762, and settled on land in north part, three miles from Central Square, one-half mile northeasterly from Goose Pond, where he probably built a log house, but later built a one-story framed building 20x25 feet, fronting the south, with a lean-to on north side. This house, the last one on the farm, was taken down about 1860. A cellar hole, apple-trees, and stone fences, now mark the "old homestead," fast becoming wood-land and passing into oblivion.*

Nathaniel⁵ Kingsbury was a private in the war of the Revolution, serving in Capt. Davis Howlet's company, raised out of Col. Ashley's regiment of militia; and marched from Keene, N. H., to reinforce the Continental army at Ticonderoga; service, five days, from June 29 to July 3, 1777; travel, 92 miles; received 1 l. 10 s. 4 d. He marched with his company as far as Black River, Vt., when same were ordered home.†

* This farm has since been owned by Capt. Samuel Kingsbury (No. 9), William Ruffle, Caleb and Charles Wright.

† History of Gilsum, N. H.

His brother, Lieut. Daniel⁵ Kingsbury of Keene, was in the same company; service, 13 days, from June 29 to July 11; travel, 219 miles; received 3 l. 10 s. 2 d.

June 29, 1766, Nathaniel⁵ and his wife were admitted to full communion in what is now the First Congregational Church in Keene.
